

June 26th, Better Than New
Part 1 in the series 'The Greatest Reset'

What were some things from last Sunday's message that resonated with you?

Was there anything you wrestled with?

When is the last time you hit the reset button on a device?

Would it be loving for God to give us a reset button for our mistakes in life?

Why did God put the tree of the knowledge of good and evil in the garden of Eden?

What does the story of Pinocchio have to do with God's relationship to us?

There is no reset button for our mistakes in life, but there is still good news. What is that good news?

What message did the old testament prophets bring to the nation of Israel?

Read Joel 2:25-27

"I will repay you for the years the locusts have eaten—the great locust and the young locust, the other locusts and the locust swarm— my great army that I sent among you. 26 You will have plenty to eat, until you are full, and you will praise the name of the Lord your God, who has worked wonders for you; never again will my people be shamed. 27 Then you will know that I am in Israel, that I am the Lord your God, and that there is no other; never again will my people be shamed."

What is the significance of locusts? Why does God leave a promise of redemption?

Jim brought up the art of kintsugi, where a broken piece of pottery is repaired, using golden lacquer to fill in the cracks. Can you think of other things that become better after being damaged?
