

September 18th, Imago Dei
Part 1 in the series 'Human'

What were some things from Sunday's message that resonated with you?

Was there anything you wrestled with?

Why do our ideas about what it means to be a human matter?

Why do we hold humans and animals to different standards?

What is usually meant by the phrase "I'm only human"?

What are some of the ways humans differ from other living creatures?

Why do you think many people want to bestow human characteristics on animals, and portray humans as animals?

Read Genesis 1:26-27

"26 Then God said, "Let us make mankind in our image, in our likeness, so that they may rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky, over the livestock and all the wild animals, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." 27 So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them."

What does it mean for humans to be created in the image of God? In what ways are we similar to God? In what ways are we different?

What are the consequences of denying the image of God in each of us?

What was the idea of the illustration with the picture of Jim?

What was the main point of the illustration with the $100 bill?
