

May 14th, Honor Guard
Part 2 in the series 'Way of Life'

What were some things from this message that resonated with you?

Was there anything you wrestled with?

Why would anyone want to cling to a way of life that makes them miserable?

Read Proverbs 14:12

“There is a way that appears to be right, but in the end it leads to death.”

What are the implications of the fact that some things feel right but are actually wrong?

Why do you think the command to keep the sabbath holy is the longest of the ten commandments?

What does it mean that the sabbath was made for man?

How does the sabbath benefit humans?

Jim said that needing someone keeps us from genuinely loving them. What do you think of that idea?

How is good parenting preventative?

Jim mentioned that honoring someone does not necessarily require unquestioning obedience or unending love. How can you honor someone without obedience/love?
