What were some things from this message that resonated with you?

Was there anything you wrestled with?

Have you ever felt stuck or frustrated with technology?

In what ways do questions transport us?

How do questions transform us?

Why do you think Jesus often used questions to teach lessons?

A. W. Tozer says the most important thing about us is what comes into our minds when we think about God. What do you think about that claim?

Can you know about God without knowing God?

Can you know God without knowing about God?

In your relationship with God, what are some things that are important to remember (bring to the front of your mind)?

What are some helpful questions to ask each day to help update our relationship with God?
