

August 20th, I Think So
Part 1 of the series "More Than Enough"

What were some things from this message that resonated with you?

Was there anything you wrestled with?

Read Romans 8: 31-32

“What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?”

If God has given us everything we need, why do we sometimes feel that we don't have what we need?

When it comes to life, what the “pieces” that we sometimes feel are missing?

If we are not qualified to determine our own growth, who is qualified?

If we believe that God has given us all we need, how does that change us?

Jim said that by allowing certain evidence to influence us, we can indirectly choose what we believe. What do you think of that idea?

Jim said there are far worse things than feeling bad about yourself. What do you think of that idea?

The light of truth is uncomfortable. What are the consequences of avoiding the light of truth and clinging to darkness?

Read 2 Peter 1:3

“His divine power has given us everything we need for a godly life through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness.”

Only in connection to God do we truly have what we need. What are some of the things God has given us for a life of godliness?
