DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Question #1

What did you resonate with?

Question #2

Was there anything you wrestled with?

Question #3

Read Colossians 3:1-4 below. What did Paul mean when he said these words? What application do they have to our lives today?

Colossians 3:1-4, NLT

“Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God’s right hand.² Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth.³ For you died to this life, and your real life is hidden with Christ in God.⁴ And when Christ, who is your life, is revealed to the whole world, you will share in all his glory.”

Question #4

We are meant to look forward to and joyfully anticipate our forever home in heaven. To set our sights on heaven and not be tied up in the things of this world. What do you think of that? Is it easy to do? When have you found yourself focused on heaven?

Question #5

C.S. Lewis wrote, “If I find in myself a desire which no experience in this world can satisfy, the most probable explanation is that I was made for another world.” Why do you think he said this? Have you ever felt “homesick” in this way?

Question #6

Is it dangerous to become too attached and too focused on the world here on earth? Why or why not?

Question #7

To love God and love people are the two most important things we are called to do. How can we stay focused on these things above all else?
